

Singapore, 15/NOV/ 2013 Antares International Media, a Singapore based distribution company, is announcing at ATF 2013 exclusive representation agreements with the French company- Ladies First Distribution and Brazilian production company - Prodigio Films for their entire libraries in Asia.

The newly formed partnerships are meant to bring high quality Hollywood, European and Brazilian content in both 4K and HD to the increasingly dynamic and fast growing Asian market. Highlights of Ladies First's catalogue are the 4K series Hollywood Makeover 2x13x26' and Relax California Style 13x26'

The most outstanding drama series in the Prodigio Film's is Copa hotel 26x30'. Copa hotel tells the story of a Brazilian photographer moves back from overseas to Rio to take over his father's hotel and encounters all kind of humor, drama and romance inside the hotel.

Company Profile

Antares International Media, in 2013 has successfully closed several 4K agreements with Samsung and LG, as well as volume deals in Asia, including a 200 hour package deal with Mobile ONE, a Singaporean telecom company for its newly launched IPTV Platform.

"Our mission is to bring the newest and best content to Asia." said Fiona Chu, President and Founder of Antares International Media, " We enjoy working with our outstanding partners like Mobile One, Ladies First Distribution and Prodigio. Through our collaborations, we believe more excellent productions will be seen in Asia."

Ladies First Distribution has a brand new library, which is focusing on premium TV content, and on all possible women related topics from light entertainment to social issues, documentaries. Programs are in 4K or HD.

Prodigo, well-established production company based in Sao Paulo, produces high quality drama series, films and documentary for HBO, Globosat, A&E and National Geographic Channel.